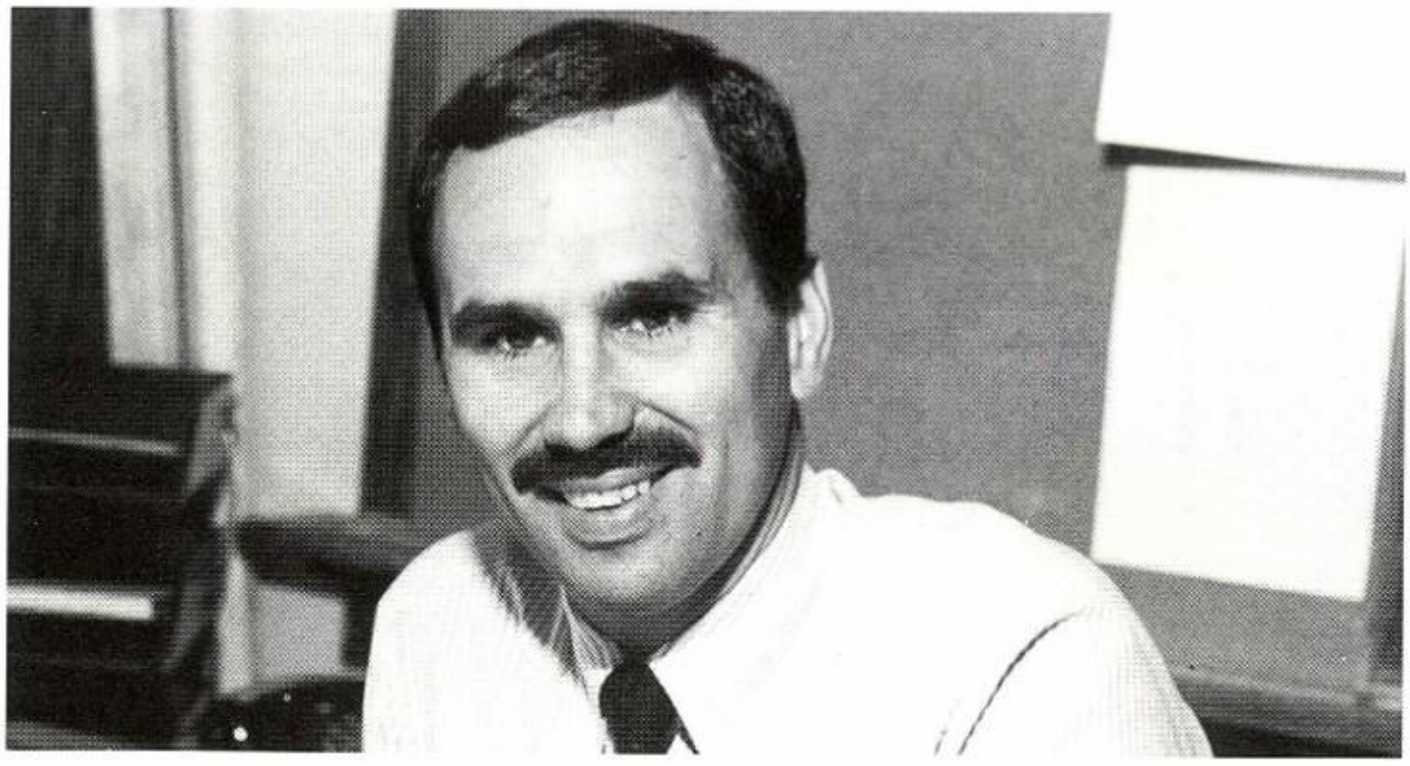
Dedication



We the 1985 yearbook staff would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Ronald Limoncelli. He has exhibited leadership to us, which will benefit us in the future. Whether as a coach, as a teacher, or as an administrator, he always gives a little extra. He has encouraged us to reach out and obtain our hopes, dreams, and goals.

Thanks, Mr. Limoncelli, for believing in the Class of'85.

Our Advisors

We, the Class of 1985, would like to thank our advisors for the support, time, and effort that they put into our class. Throughout our high school years, they have helped and guided us.

Our class owes a lot to these two men. Without their help, the problems which arose surely could not have been dealt with as efficiently and effectively as they were.

Words are not enough to express our feelings toward these two men. We can only say thank-you to our fine advisors — Mr. Meaney and Mr. Laures.

Editor's Note

We hope you like the 84-85 Kronicle. The yearbook staff tried to blend new ideas and bring back traditional ideas also. The cover of our yearbook represents a place in which our memories will be kept, our high school.

In June of 1985, the senior class graduates. Here, we will all leave together as a class . . . Steppin' Out.

So it is our turn to say good-bye, to say farewell to a school that has been part of us since September 1972. Yet like those before us, we cannot depart without leaving something behind, some sort of significant remembrance from the Class of 1985.

And this is why we created this book, it stands as a final tribute to the senior class, and to those who have made it.

The 1985 Kronicle was not created overnight, and it was not the conception of one person. Instead it was the creation of a group of very hard working and cooperative students. The road to producing and financing this book was no easy task. For credit is due in many places. It took weeks of concentrated effort and imagination by the entire staff to produce a book that would appeal to all of you. I must also give credit to the photographers who spent many a day trying to take only the best photographs, and who often had to sacrifice class time for that of the staff. And then there were those who incorporated their own personal skills. To the artists, whose beautiful work decorate our pages. To the typists, whose often tedious yet excellent work was so often appreciated.

Finally, a special note of thanks to our advisor and to Erik, Greg and Ingrid, my editors. It was the three of them who started planning with me back in June of '84. And through all this time, they have stuck by closely and have always been willing to cooperate, and to fulfill their responsibilities.

This is my tribute to all of them, and this book, is our tribute, to all of you.

The Editor
Kelli
